

BACHELOR OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION (BBA)
Semester Scheme Examination ~~2012-14~~

2013-15

Edition : ~~2011-12~~

(A) B.B.A. Semester Examination
Scheme of Examination

1. To pass a semester, a student will be required to secure atleast 36% marks in each paper and 40% marks in the aggregate. Passing separately in the practicals wherever prescribed is necessary.
 2. There will be no bar (regarding number of subjects to be cleared) for promotion from semester. III to IV semester and V to VI semester.
 3. For admission to III semester, a student will be required to secure at least - 40% marks aggregate of at least - 50% papers of I and II semesters taken together, provided further
 - (i) A candidate who fails at the BBA - I and / or II semester examination and has not less than 36% marks in atleast 50% paper i.e. 6 out of 12 papers of I semesters taken together shall be permitted to reappear in one or more paper (i.e. 6 papers) of his choice in the next examination of the same semester.
 4. For admission to V semester, a student will be required to secure at least - 40% marks aggregate of at least - 50% papers of III and IV semester taken together provided cleared all subjects of I and II semesters.
 5. A candidate who appears in due papers, will be considered to have cleared only such papers in which he secures at least - 40% marks individually or 36% in individual papers or 40% marks in the aggregate of such due papers in which he secures 36% marks individually.
 6. A candidate will have to complete his BBA, maximum in six years from the session of admission in BBA I Semester. If he fails to do so, he will have to leave the course.
 7. Grace marks rules, as applicable for other graduate examinations shall also apply to BBA examination.
 8. Scrutiny - Revaluation shall be permissible as per other semester (without G) examinations.
 9. Successful candidates will be classified as under
 - (First Division - 60% Second Division - 48%) of the aggregate marks prescribed for semester (I to VI) examinations taken together. All the rest will be declared to have passed the examination.
 10. Above scheme of examination shall come into force w. e. f. B.B.A. I semester examination (2017).
 11. Medium of instruction in BBA course shall be both Hindi and English medium.
- Improvement may be allowed only 50% of the paper he/she has already cleared.